What a challenge it is to sustain excellence in a time of insufficient funding, decisions about “stimulus” dollars, highly qualified staff issues and increased demands. The reauthorizations of NCLB and IDEA 2004 are heating up and on the RADAR screen of our legislators as are the controversies surrounding Restraint and Seclusion! What a time to plan to be in Washington THIS July!

The 8th Annual Leadership Seminar will once again provide strategies designed to sustain excellence. No matter where we are with the reauthorization of NCLB, participants will hear the most up to date information. The Reauthorization of NCLB will have huge implications in the field of special education. Participants will learn how to continue in making an impact in the reauthorization process. That impact begins with making connections with your congressional delegation. Guided practice on maneuvering through the federal maze will culminate with visits to “The Hill.” Strategies and techniques learned will be valuable back home to apply at the local and state levels.
