

Following are online sources of information and inspiration regarding children, nature, and outdoor learning.

Cool Crossings:

http://blog.nwf.org/2015/09/cool-crossings-vote-for-your-favorite-wildlife-crossing/?s_email_id=20150910_MEM_ENG_CoolCrossingsQuiz_MEM_ACT%7CMTOther

Children and Nature Network

<https://www.facebook.com/childrenandnature?fref=nf>

<http://bit.ly/1JSkCn3>

Getting Kids Outdoors (Emmet County)

<https://www.facebook.com/pages/Getting-Kids-Outdoors/131034765920?fref=nf>

Mindbodygreen

<http://www.mindbodygreen.com/0-21017/7-science-backed-reasons-to-get-your-kids-outside.html>

David Suzuki

<http://www.davidsuzuki.org/blogs/queen-of-green/2015/05/how-not-to-squelch-a-kids-curiosity-about-nature/>

Elkhart Green

<http://bit.ly/1JUKTQE>

PBS encourages outdoor play

<http://www.pbs.org/parents/expert-tips-advice/2015/06/encouraging-outdoor-play/>

Learning4kids.

<http://www.learning4kids.net/2012/08/28/textured-painting-with-natures-paint-brushes/>

<https://www.facebook.com/learning4kids/photos/a.189608284437798.51427.183863125012314/66411126987509/?type=1&fref=nf>

Nature Rocks (Nature Conservancy)

<https://www.facebook.com/NatureRocks>

World Forum Nature Collaboration for Children

<http://www.worldforumfoundation.org/working-groups/nature/international-mud-day/>

<https://www.facebook.com/WorldForumFoundation?fref=nf>

NE Michigan Great Lakes Stewardship Initiative

<https://www.facebook.com/NEMISTewardship>

Little Traverse Conservancy

<http://landtrust.org/wordpress/summer-programs/>

Audobon Society & Magazine

<http://mag.audubon.org/articles/birds/how-birds-cope-cold-winter>

Parents and Children in Nature, Early On Conf 2015, Websites blogs and online resources.docx